Notes from SAW Chair

Laurel Watson, Ph.D.

Dear SAW Members,

I hope this newsletter finds you well and you are all enjoying your summer! As I reflect on my time as SAW Chair and each newsletter contribution, I am aware that I tend to focus a great deal on the changing seasons, so naturally it makes sense to do so in this summer newsletter as well. This is my final month as chair—another ending and another beginning. I want to thank you all for trusting and allowing me to represent SAW. It has been a wonderful couple of years, and I am beyond grateful for this opportunity that has allowed me to serve SAW members, SCP, and to connect and work with a wonderful group of colleagues. Indeed, my favorite part about this role has been cultivating some wonderful relationships. I look forward to serving SAW for the next couple of years in the role of Past-Chair. I would especially like to thank Debra Mollen for her continued mentorship, guidance, and patience with me as I have “learned the ropes” and taken the helm. For those of you who know Debra, you are probably aware that she is an incredibly positive, supportive, and kind person, and her guidance has made for—what I hope was—a very smooth transition in leadership.

I also want to welcome our incoming Chair, Nadia Hasan. I am certain that SAW is in capable hands with Nadia’s guidance and leadership. She has some wonderful ideas for the direction of SAW, and I look forward to Nadia's leadership! Just as Debra has mentored me, I look forward to assisting Nadia as she moves into this role.

Enclosed in this newsletter, we have some wonderful programming at APA that you won't want to miss. First, I want to apologize in advance for my absence at this year's annual convention. Like many educational institutions, my university has undergone extreme budget cuts that have resulted in lack of faculty travel funds. In addition to this, I am happy to announce that I am pregnant and expecting to bring a little one into this world soon. For these reasons, attending APA this year has been especially challenging. I am very sad to miss this convention, particularly since this is my last year as Chair; I will miss each of you and dearly wish I could be there. I do want to thank my wonderful colleagues for stepping in to assist with SAW-related activities. It certainly takes a village, and I'm thankful for this village! I will certainly be there for future conventions and look forward to seeing you all during that time.

Thank you again for the opportunity to serve this wonderful Section of SCP. For those of you attending APA this year, I hope you are able to make it to some of our events!
Sincerely,

Laurel B. Watson

Finally, Dr. Mary Gregerson asked me to share the Division 10 (Society for the Psychology of Aesthetics, Creativity, and the Arts) programming on Creative Arts in Psychology and Therapy that she helped organize along with Dr. Allyn Enderlyn. Dr. Gregerson shared that they “conscientiously featured female professionals throughout the program, mainstreaming equitable gender distribution of contributions.” Many of these programs are likely to appeal to SAW members.
